DIOCESAN PRAYER CYCLE (DPC)

WINCHESTER

Bishop Geoff writes:

I saw a poster outside a church which said:

‘Life is fragile – handle with PRAYER!’

Do you think there is any point in prayer? If you are being totally honest do you sometimes think it is like whistling in the dark or talking to ourselves?

Prayer should be as natural to us as breathing and yet so many seem to find it difficult. Those wonderful Christians who give up their time (and sometimes their sleep) to be Streets Angels or Street Pastors in the towns and cities of our Diocese, often have young people asking them to pray for them, or someone close to them, and when they agree but suggest the young person might like to join in, it is amazing the number of times the response is that they do not know how to pray.

Instead of prayer being understood as a natural way of communicating with God – a two-way honest conversation – there seems that for many prayer has become shrouded in a mystique, where people are either unable to express how they are feeling to a God who they believe to be so remote and uncomprehending or else, as George Bernard Shaw once wrote: ‘Most people do not pray, they only beg!’

Often when we do pray, we are not so much saying ‘God, thy will be done’ as ‘God, please make sure my will is done!’

We forget that any ‘conversation’ should be two – way and we rabbit on and do not allow God the space to respond to our prayers – as St Mother Teresa wrote:

‘God speaks in the silence of the heart. Listening is the beginning of prayer’.

This is important to think about because prayer is the life-blood of our faith. We need to pray – not just on special occasions or when we are in trouble but daily – indeed, constantly. Prayer is exhaling the spirit of humanity and inhaling the Spirit of God.

WINCHESTER

Please join with others in our Diocese using this Cycle of Prayer as a way of bringing to mind particular requests and sharing them with God.

And if after prayerful reflection any of you would like to think about joining Street Pastors or Street Angels in your part of the Diocese, then please contact me if you need any further information!

This isn't 'Strictly Come Dancing' but nevertheless: 'Keep Praying'!

+ Geoff
