Diocesan Prayer Cycle (DPC)

Jesus clearly valued prayer: he spent a lot of time praying. And he taught his disciples how to pray. In particular he taught them the Lord's Prayer – but let's focus on what he said to his disciples straight after that:

'Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him." And he answers from within, "Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything." I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs. (Luke 11:5-8)

At first sight you might get the impression from the story Jesus tells here, about the chap who needs some bread, that we're praying to a grumpy old man, like the one in the story who doesn't want to get up in the middle of the night and give his neighbour some bread - because after all, who would?

So is God a grumpy old man? Of course that's not what Jesus is saying. This little story is all about how we are to pray, rather than the one to whom we are praying.

Our God is not grumpy! This story is about us, not him. It tells us how we're to pray. We've got to keep going. We mustn't play at prayer, rather we must be persistent in prayer. It's not that God needs persuading to answer our prayers. It's rather that he wants us to go on trusting him, go on relying on him, go on praying to him.

If we want to know to whom it is we pray, we have to go back to the start of the prayer Jesus taught which starts with the revolutionary word, 'Father'. The one we pray to is nothing less than our Father: not someone far away who doesn't care, but a loving parent, to whom we can bring all our cares and concerns. How can we possibly not pray to this our God who loves us with a father's love? So let's not give up, but keep on trusting him, keep on relying on him. And let's use this prayer cycle to keep on praying to him, for the coming of his Kingdom, on earth as it already is in heaven.

Philip
