Diocesan Prayer Cycle

1st July – 30th September

Diocesan Prayer Cycle (DPC)

*In his long poem, The Idylls of the King, Alfred, Lord Tennyson, puts these words in the mouth of King Arthur: "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of." And I've no doubt that he's right. Or, to put it a little more prosaically, Archbishop William Temple said, "When I pray, coincidences happen. When I don't, they don't."*

It is a foundational conviction – and certainly one shared by Jesus – that our Heavenly Father hears and answers prayers. It's what he delights to do!

Of course that forces us to ask why it is that we are so slow to pray. Just how might we be missing out if we don't? And, indeed, how might God's Church and his world be missing out too?

May this cycle of prayer lead us to pray – and to pray expectant, humble, hopeful prayers that we believe will be heard and answered. For it is indeed true that, "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of."
