Lava

A long long time ago, there was a volcano living all alone in the middle of the sea
He sat high above his bay watching all the couples play
And wishing that he had someone, too.

And from his lava came this song of hope that he sang out loud everyday for years and years.

I have a dream I hope will come true
That you're here with me and I'm here with you I wish that the Earth, sea, and the sky up above-a will send me someone to lava

Years of singing all alone turned his lava into stone until he was on the brink of extinction
But little did he know that living in the sea below another volcano was listening to his song

Everyday she heard his tune her lava grew and grew, because she believed his song was meant for her
Now she was so ready to meet him above the sea
As he sang his song of hope for the last time

Chorus: I have a dream....

Rising from the sea below stood a lovely volcano
Looking all around but she could not see him
He tried to sing to let her know that she was not there alone
But with no lava, his song was all gone
He filled the sea with his tears and watched his dreams disappear.
As she remembered what his song meant to her.

Chorus: I have a dream....

Oh, they were so happy to finally meet above the sea
All together now their lava grew and grew
No longer are they all alone, with aloha as their new home
And when you visit them this is what they sing.

I have a dream I hope will come true
That you'll grow old with me and I'll grow old with you
We thank the Earth, sea, and the sky, we thank too

I lava you, I lava you, I lava you.

Comprehension Challenge

Can you think of three good words to describe how the volcano was felling at the start of the film?

What does the volcano's 'lava' represent?

In the middle of the song, years of singing all alone have turned the volcano's lava into stone. Why is this?

What makes the volcano be able to come back from the bottom of the ocean?

Thinking

What would you say the overall message of the movie is?

Is it really about two volcanos or is it telling us about something else?

Christians believe that love can conquer all things.

This comes from a famous chapter of the Bible called 1 Corinthians 13. You could try to find this in the New Testament of a Bible or look it up on the internet.

What do you think Christians mean when they say this? Does the Lava movie help to explain what it means to say that love conquers all things?
