Harvest

There is no single 'official' date for harvest festival but this would usually be in September. It always works well if school and parish can collaborate on this.

Martyrs of Papua New Guinea may be an interesting story for older children.

NOTES

There is some debate about what counts as 'Remembrance Season' or 'Remembrance Tide'. The British Legion suggest that it should be from All Souls Day until 11th Nov or Remembrance Sunday (whichever comes last). The month then goes back to green for 'ordinary time' and then red for the last week of the church year (from Christ the King until the start of Advent).
