Key terms

- Template: a design that someone else has created that you can easily edit with your information
- Brand hub/brand kit: a brand kit is a package of materials (logos, colours, fonts) designed to help you establish a consistent visual identity, and the brand hub is where brand kits are stored
- Elements: a huge selection of graphics, photos, videos, audio, charts, tables and more that you can add to your design

Find your way around Canva.com

Explore the different templates available or search for what you want e.g. 'Instagram story'

The home screen shows your recent designs and Canva templates to create something new.

Designs are automatically saved in Projects and Recent designs

Brand Hub

Access your Brand Hub
here

The screenshot shows the Canva Brand Hub interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Canva' logo, menu items like 'Designs', 'Business', 'Education', 'Plans and pricing', and 'Learn', and a 'Create a design' button. Below the navigation is a sidebar with a user profile 'digital@thechurch.org.uk' and a menu with options: Home, Projects, Templates, Brand Hub (highlighted), Apps, and Cancel for Terms. The main content area features a header with the text 'Discover a magical new era' and a search bar. Below this is a row of icons for various design tools: For you, Text, Backgrounds, Presentations, Social media, Videos, Print products, Websites, and More. A section titled 'You might want to try...' displays a carousel of design templates: Book, Whiteboard, Presentation (36:9), Instagram Story, Instagram Post (Square), All Document, and Facebook Post (Landscape). Another section 'Open each gift to discover a new feature' shows a carousel of colorful gift boxes, with the first one open to reveal a 'Explore Brand Hub' card for 'AalibCo AustinCo'. At the bottom, there's a 'Recent designs' section.

See pages as thumbnails in grid view (useful if you've got a multi-page design)

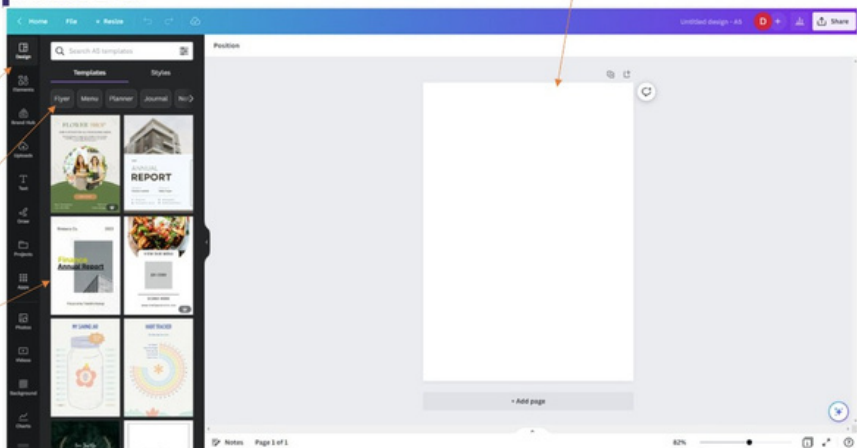

Using templates

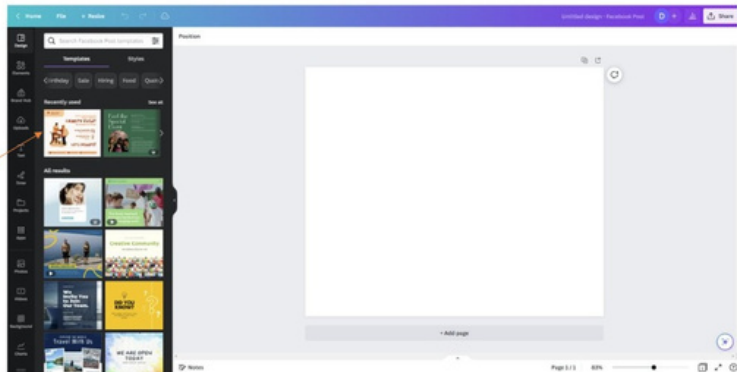

You have the option of using a template for your design so that all you need to do is input your own information.

Click on 'Design', and then search for templates, or select one of the suggested categories, e.g. Flyer

Scroll through the various templates and select one for your design.

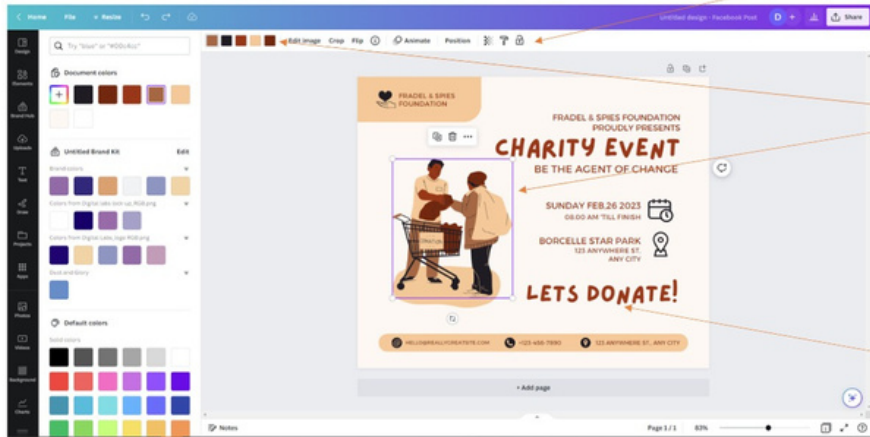

Using templates

To insert a template, simply click on the one you want

Using templates

Once you've selected a template, it will insert itself onto your design. From here, you can click on each component of the design to change and customise it from the design menu

In this example, clicking on the graphic of the two people brings up the colours used in the graphic. You can click on each of these colours to change the palette of the graphic.

Click on text to change the font, colour and words
