

OLD ALRESFORD PLACE / DIOCESAN OFFICE TRAVEL INSTRUCTIONS

BY TRAIN:

Main line from London Waterloo to Alton (14 miles away) or Winchester (9 miles away). You will then need to complete your journey by taxi, bus or car, as detailed below.

BY TAXI:

From Winchester or Alton outside station.

BY BUS:

There are regular services from Alton and Winchester stations for latest times check <http://www.stagecoachbus.com/default.aspx>

BY CAR:

From the M3 - M3 to Junction 9 (if travelling from the north), or junction 10 (if travelling from the south). Take the A31 towards Alton, then the B3047 signposted New Alresford. In the town centre you will need to turn left onto the B3046 to Old Alresford. On reaching Old Alresford, the Parish Church is on the right with an immediate right-hand turn into our drive. There is a brown tourist sign pointing to Old Alresford Place. Please note that most satnavs will take you about half a mile from us. If travelling from another direction we recommend the use of sat nav or online mapping software, remembering to be aware that you will need to follow the directions above for the last bit of your journey.
