

Victory

- Eighty years ago the country took to the streets to celebrate VE Day, although for many the festivities were tinged with sadness as they remembered those who had died and those who were still missing.
- Will you be taking part in VE celebrations this week? It's good to remember those who made sacrifices for our peace and freedom, reflect on the lessons of past conflicts and engage with our local communities.
- What can we do to work for peace in our families, communities and the wider world? Small steps can lead to big changes.
- Is there a conversation you should be having, or someone you need to reach out to?

'Peace is a journey of a thousand miles and it must be taken one step at a time.' Lyndon B. Johnson

'Peace cannot be kept by force. It can only be achieved with understanding.' Albert Einstein